

Drafts For Review — Meghan Lahti Campaign

Prepared: April 30, 2026 (Thursday) Owner: Sheri (campaign manager) Status: All copy below is draft. Edit freely, then forward to Meghan for approval where flagged.

1. FB Community-Group Response (Meghan to post)

Where to use: This is a comment Meghan can drop in the FB community-group threads where the website screenshots are circulating (e.g. the “Expand Rocky Point Park” group post). Post first, then proceed with website fixes.

Voice notes: Modeled on Meghan’s own writing — owns it, doesn’t deflect, thanks the community, signals what’s next.

Hi everyone — Meghan here. Thank you for flagging the website. The version that briefly went live was a draft that hadn’t yet been reviewed and approved by me, and there are a few errors that need correcting — including the description of the Rocky Point Park western expansion, which is being explored through the Official Community Plan and is not funded. The acquisition fund is growing through community amenity contributions, but I want that distinction to be clear and accurate.

The site is offline while we work through it carefully. I take responsibility for what goes out under my name, and I’d rather take an extra week and get it right than leave anything misleading up. I genuinely appreciate the eagle eyes — it’s one of the things I love about this community.

The corrected version will be up shortly, and I’ll post here when it is.

— Meghan

Shorter alternative if a full comment feels like too much:

Thanks for flagging — that draft of the site went live before final review. The Rocky Point Park western expansion is being discussed through the OCP, not funded — that line was wrong and I take responsibility. We’re correcting the errors and will have the updated version up shortly. Appreciate the eagle eyes.

2. Fundraiser Thank-You Email

Where to use: Send to everyone on the attendee Google Sheet. Mail-merge [First-Name] from the sheet. Send from Sheri’s campaign email.

Subject line options (pick one): - Thank you for showing up - Thank you for being there with us - From Saturday — thank you

Hi [FirstName],

I wanted to send a quick personal note to thank you for coming out to the fundraiser. It meant a lot to Meghan — and to me — to look around the room and see the people who are choosing to show up for Port Moody.

Campaigns don't run on slogans. They run on people. Every conversation that night, every business card swapped, every "count me in" — that's what makes this real. Meghan and I are genuinely grateful you were part of it.

A quick heads-up on what's next: we'll be making the official campaign announcement in the coming weeks, and the website (currently being polished) will go live alongside it. If you indicated interest in volunteering, hosting a sign, or anything else, you'll hear from us shortly. If you'd like to be on the inside track for campaign updates, just reply to this email and I'll add you to the list.

Thank you again. More to come.

Warmly,

Sheri Campaign Manager — Meghan Lahti for Mayor 2026

3. Business Card Follow-Ups

You collected 4 cards. Here's a tailored short message for each — keep it under 5 sentences. Send via email (or text where only a phone number is available).

A. Aaron Demes

Contact: aaron@aarondemes.com / 778-871-0833 / www.aarondemes.com Note: Aaron also submitted the volunteer form (Apr 17) — interested in Campaign Updates and Hosting a Sign, with the message "Go Meghan Go!" Cross-reference him as a warm supporter, not a cold contact.

Hi Aaron — really nice to connect at the fundraiser, and thank you again for the "Go Meghan Go" energy on the volunteer form. We're getting things organized this week and I'll be back in touch shortly with details on lawn signs (we're aiming to start placement in the coming weeks). In the meantime, I'll add you to our campaign-updates list so you're the first to hear what's next. Talk soon — Sheri

B. Penny Bickerton

Contact: penny.bickerton@shaw.ca / 604-469-0585 Note: No company/role visible on the card — treat as a supportive community member.

Hi Penny — Sheri here, Meghan's campaign manager. Thank you for stopping by the fundraiser and giving me your card. I'd love to keep you in the loop as the campaign rolls out, and if there's anything specific you'd like to be involved in (volunteering, sign hosting, donating, attending events), just reply and let me know what would be a fit. Either way, looking forward to staying in touch. Sheri

C. Janet Andrews — New Westminster & District Labour Council

Contact: admin@nwdlc.ca / 604-291-9306 (office) / 604-767-4195 (cell) Role: Secretary-Treasurer, NWDLC Note: NWDLC has formally endorsed Meghan's campaign — so this isn't a "win the endorsement" follow-up, it's a "thank you, let's stay close" relationship-building note. Send something warm and personal that signals Meghan values the partnership without making asks yet.

Hi Janet — it was a pleasure to meet you at the fundraiser. Meghan and I are both so grateful for the NWDLC's endorsement and for the support of the council and its members. As we get the campaign rolling, I'd love to keep an open line with you on how we can be most useful to NWDLC's priorities — whether that's coordinating on shared issues, having Meghan join an event, or anything else that would strengthen the partnership. I'll be in touch with concrete things shortly, but in the meantime, thank you. Talk soon — Sheri Campaign Manager — Meghan Lahti for Mayor 2026

D. Rocky Point Public Affairs

Contact: No name visible on card front — only the firm name and tagline ("Navigating government. Engaging stakeholders. Delivering results.") Note: This is a government-relations / lobbying firm. Could be (a) introducing themselves as service providers, (b) representing a client with business in front of the city, or (c) sounding out the campaign for their own purposes. Don't reply yet — confirm with Meghan first who handed you this card and in what context. Lobby firms reaching campaigns is sensitive; Meghan needs to decide the response.

4. Volunteer & Inquiry Form Replies

Four submissions to handle. Recommendation: Loop in Leah Prentice from Tensory Technologies (who offered to help) for ongoing volunteer coordination — but YOU send these first replies personally so each person feels seen by the campaign. Then hand over the pipeline.

A. Lucy Johnson — Web/SEO inquiry (Apr 5)

Hi Lucy — thank you so much for reaching out, and apologies for the delayed reply. I'd love to learn more about what you had in mind on the web/SEO side. The campaign website is being polished right now, so your timing is perfect. Could you share a bit more about what you were thinking — were you offering support as a volunteer, or were you proposing a paid engagement? Either way, I want to make sure I respond properly. Looking forward to hearing back.

Warmly, Sheri

B. Leah Prentice — Volunteer + Balmoral Place door-knock offer (Apr 7)

Hi Leah — thank you so much for signing up to volunteer, and especially for your offer to door-knock the 88 units at Balmoral Place. That's an incredible offer — Coronation Park is a key area for us and having someone with a direct connection to that building is exactly the kind of help we need. We're getting things organized over the next couple of weeks (I'm out of town for the very early part of May), and I'll be back in touch shortly with door-knocking materials, talking points, and a target window. In the meantime — thank you. This kind of grassroots support is what wins campaigns. Warmly, Sheri

C. Aaron Demes — Sign hosting + Campaign Updates (Apr 17)

(Already covered in Section 3A — cross-reference with the business-card follow-up so he doesn't get two separate messages. Send the version in 3A.)

D. Aidan Shirley — Volunteer + Think Tanks (Apr 17)

Hi Aidan — thank you so much for signing up to volunteer and for indicating interest in the policy / think-tank side of things. That's a really valuable area for us — Meghan takes policy seriously and would benefit from people willing to dig into the details. We're getting the campaign structure formalized over the next couple of weeks. In the meantime, would you be willing to share what areas you're most interested in (housing, parks/environment, transportation, governance, local economy)? That'll help me match you to the right working group when we get going. Looking forward to having you involved. Warmly, Sheri

Note to self — delegate to Leah from Tensory

After these initial replies, hand the volunteer pipeline to Leah (Tensory Technologies).
Sample handoff message:

Hi Leah — thank you again for offering to help with volunteer coordination. We've now had four people sign up through the form, and I expect the volume to pick up significantly once Meghan announces. Could you take point on (a) maintaining a clean volunteer database, (b) tagging people by interest area and geography, and (c) drafting an onboarding sequence so each new volunteer gets a welcome → ask → first-action flow? I'll send over the four current submissions and the replies I've sent so we're aligned. I'm away the first week of May (Disneyland with the kids) but happy to set up a call after I'm back to walk through it together. — Sheri

5. Announcement Social Post (POST-DISNEY — do not post yet)

Recommended posting day: Tuesday or Wednesday after you're back, mid-morning local time. Avoid Mondays (lower engagement) and Fridays (people checking out for the weekend). Confirm with Meghan first.

Asset: Butters Studio video.

Strategy note: This is your launch. Meghan needs to be online and active for the first 24 hours after this goes up — replying to comments, thanking supporters, addressing any pushback calmly. Do NOT post if she's not available to engage. That's why we're saving it for after Disney.

Caption — Option A (Meghan-voiced, longer, suited to Facebook)

Today I'm asking Port Moody to send me back to City Hall.

Thirty years ago I got involved in politics for one reason — Bert Flinn Park was under threat, and I couldn't stand by. The work hasn't changed since: protect what makes Port Moody, Port Moody, while shaping growth on our terms.

Over the past four years as your Mayor, this council has done a lot of that work. 865 purpose-built rentals at Moody Centre — with a grocery store, a daylighted creek, and a pedestrian overpass to Rocky Point Park, all negotiated into the deal. 328 below-market homes under construction at Portwood. A Coronation Park development with three and a half times the required community benefits. Town halls. Youth summits. Real conversations.

I'm running again because the work isn't done. Affordability. Traffic. Parks. A real local economy. Governance that listens.

If you're in — sign up at lahti2026.com to volunteer, host a sign, or just stay in the loop.

Port Moody. Together. Forward.

— Meghan

Caption — Option B (shorter, suited to Instagram)

It's official. I'm running for re-election as Mayor of Port Moody.

Thirty years ago I entered politics to protect Bert Flinn Park. Today the work is bigger — affordability, parks, a local economy that lets you work in the city you live in — but the principle is the same: this community deserves leadership that listens, delivers, and shows up.

Port Moody. Together. Forward.
